British Made.

Every Householder should ask to see this burner, not only ecause of its boautiful design, but - . . .

Because Inverted Incandescent Gas Light under the Welsbach system is far superior to and cheaper than electricity Because it is the ideal light for the home. All the light spreads downwards, where it is wanted, leaving the ceilings softly shaded.

Because it is fitted with Welshach Gas and Air Regulators, which do away with inequalities of gas pressures, and give a steady light.

Because this new burner is guaranteed to be satisfactory in OFRICAT use, and to give more light at less cost than any other inverted burner,-70 candle power for less than 3 feet of gas per hour. For full particulars, apply to the Sole Agents for the Welsbach Incandescent Gas

STIRRING UP STRIFE.

Japanese Paper Condemned.

The "Japan Gazettu" says editorially Some time ago we, in common with other foreign newspripers in Japan, called attention to the serious mischief being done by "Tokyo Puck," an alleged-comic illustratod weekly in defiling the status of the wife of one of Japan's representatives in a foreign country besides lampooning in an insulting way some of Japan's leading statusmen. For a time "Puck" seemed to COAL DEPARTMENT realize its irresponsibility but it has broken out again in a new and more arging international violence by Japan upon China, accompanying the counsel with insult conveyed by text and illustration. On March 10 it published an "Anti-China Number," which fairly recked with At, ARO 6th Edition, Wastern Union taunts calculated to incite a breach of in ternational peace. The front cover shows a full-page cartoon of a caricatured Chinaman, with a spyglass, on the look out for the American battleship fleet (indicated in a vignette each vessel flying the stars and stripes), the text in English being: The Chinese: "Why, Japs, angry for the spizure of Tatsu maru? Importinent! PH answer when the Yankee Squadron comes to these shores. Confucius said that it's a great pleasure to see a friend from a remote land. But how long! I wish it CHINKIANO: Mosses Graiting & Co. would reach here quickly!" 'Another picture shows a Chinaman in the form of a jumping jack brandishing a stick, while a caricatured Kaiser pulls the string; the text reads: "China has assumed a strong attitude. Queer! wait until the wire-puller is detected," Another shows a Chinese bost apparently snorting defiance, while, behind a Russian bear and a Cornan wolf are stealing its property 818 the text reading. "The poor boar of China does not suspect the Bear robbing Mongolia and the Wolf licking Shantang.

There are many other in-ulting references to China besides there, which are quoted as having special international sug. gestiveness likely to affront other friendly foreign Powers. But perhaps the worst feature in the number from the standpoint of a desire for peace is the double-page cartoon showing a full-page Japanese soldier pinning down with his bayongt what is supposed to be a helpless Chinese entfish about one-third the size, the remaining space being devoted to a sketch of the Premier endeavouring to suppres the same cutfish (now right side up and confidently wearing an Imperial crown) by means of a gourd on which appears supposed likeness to the features of the Minister for Foreign Affair. The text runs : "Saionji desires to catch the cat-fish of China with the gourd of Hayashi, but naturally all in vain. Better eatch it with a hayonet." The idea is that both cat-fish and gourd bein smooth any attempt to catch the first with the last would be hopeless and is founded on the Japanese proverb : Anahite von hyetenmonuta da. The estensible reason of the cartnen is to condemn the diplomacy of the and an open incitement to war. We pany will be CLOSED from the 9th to learn from Japanese papers to-day that this insulting "Anti-China Number" "Tokyo Puck" has now reached Peking. A Peking telegram to the "Jiji" says that 480 copies were specially sent to various Government offices there, and many Chinese GREEN ISLAND CEMENT CO., LD. officials are indiguant at the rude caricatures published by "Puck." The "Jiji's" t'ek-THE NINETEENTH ORDINARY ing correspondent strongly condemns the ANNUAL MEETING of Share Tokyo periodical, stating that such foolish action is highly detrimental to good international relations. With this comment April, 1908, at 11 o'clock A M., for the no doubt all the best Japanese paper will concur, but it seems that some check should be set upon this enfant terrible to ber, 1907, declaring a Dividend and electing prevent the continuation of such mischievous international tactics. While censorship is properly only allowable during a state of war and Japan is happily not on such terms with her neighbour, there are conditions prevailing between them which render their international relations particularly delicate and sensitive just now, making such provocative insults as those distributed generally by the "Tokyo Puck" peculiarly dangerous. The Hongkong papers describe the anti-Japanese agitation at Canton as growing

Cantonese Secures Concession

A Castonese named Foo has obtaine a concession from the Chinese Government to work mines in Hainan near Hongkong. It has been known for some time that there are large deposits of gold, tin, coal and iron in Hairian, and it is said that the concession granted to Mr Foo is a very valuable one, the alluvial soil bearing a high percentage of tin-ore in many places, whilst in other parts of the concession, which is about 17,000 acres in extent, the washdirt from which gold in large quantities is obtainable in many places, has been struck only 3 or 4 feet below the surface.

NEW YORK, March 10. A tolegram-to the "New York Tribune"

from Washington states that the correspondence between the United States and Venezuela, when laid before the Senate, will show grave discourtesy on the part of Venezuela. The State Department made every possible effort to obtain courtesy and justice from the Castro Administration, and Mr Root, Secretary of State, now admits that he has done everything that it is in his power to do, and that further action rests with Congress. According to the view of the State Department, the telegram says, the United States must deliver an ultimatum and follow it up with force, or else complemently submit to treutment from Venezuela which European Powers would respond to by taking immediate reprisals. "Both President Roosevelt and Mr Root," the telegram proceeds, "believe that Preeident Castro should be made to feel the Damaged Packages must be left in the Godowns for examination by the Consigner's and the Company's representative at an appointed hour. All Claims must be presented within tan date of the standard force, and it is countly problematical resented within ten days of the steamer's force, and it is equally problematical arrival here, after which date they cannot whether the United States could gracefully undertake such an unpleasant task, in view of the work performed by the country, and especially of the Administration, in promoting international peace. Yet officials ask whether the people and Congress with the Government to submit to continuelious troatment at the hands of semi-civilised and wholly uncouth South American dictatorship. This is precisely the question which the Adibinistraton expects Congress, which will shortly have the correspondence before

CHINA SQUADRON GUNNERY

The congratulations which have been showered upon the China Squadron for its superb display of gunnery, both in the gun-laying tests and the battle practice, should nerve the handymen for still greater achievements this year mys the "L. and C. Express." The China Squadron will have its work out out for it, as at least four other squadrons are determined to have a better look in on the next opportunity. It is this healthy spirit of rivalry and smulation which keeps the gunnery up to the standard it should attain. A curious result of the improved gunnery is the greater expenditure of money upon targets, these having been knocked into rags and splinters latterly. However, it is an item of expenditure which the taxpayers will cheerfully accede to.

SOLDIER STORIES.

No 1 WITH THE FLAG IN BRITISH

retired British soldier, Mr Byron Whitehead of Leicoster, has been felling his experiences with the Army "out East" just lately, and whilst his enthusiesm for tropical sights and sounds does not equal that of the here of Kipling's song "Mandalay", he has much that is interest ing and aluable to record. It was to a journalist belonging to the staff of an important English newspaper that Mr White head related the following particulars of his life's history. "I was roared in barracks, and when in later years 1 enlisted, my military service led me to many countries. For years served in India; also twolve months in Aden (a spot detested by overy soldier) then in Burma, and faally I went through the South African War with the Sm

Those complaints reduced me to such a state of general weakness that had it not been for Dr. Williams' pink pills for pale people I should have been a broken man. fell away and become so bilimir, Whitehead continued, that I could bordly Mero at a short distance Without wasning I was often attacked by dizziness and swimming somestion in my head. Sometames I even roofed and fell. Dark speeks Boated before my eyes, and so agd. hitter taste arose from the slomach. My tongue for unche was owned with a dark, yellow substance, and my breathing very short. After my retirement from the Army these troubles became daily more aggravated. Indigestion sluttered and so wreeked my merces that the least sound under me tropble. Violent headaches and pains down riv spine, followed with discipless nights. When I bay down I dozed off for a while, but could not sleep. Before arising I semetimes had a cup of ten brought to me in bed, but often I hadn't strength enough to hold the cap in my hands. My body became rostless and from a strong, robust, active man I dwindled away to a wifel, unlit for any work I could only walk by the aid of sticks. After the hast exercise I was punished with cruel aches under my shoulders. I became melancholy and irritable, and friends avoided my company as much as I through nervousness. avoided them. I was giving up is despair when one of my old comrades called and advised me to try Dr. Williams' pink pills for pale people, and insisted that they would cure me. ablained a bottle of the pills, and took them, feeling encouraged to persevere after I had taken its contents. I began to feel a more rested and conjunted, and my pains left me gra-ually as I continued taking Dr. Williams' pink pills. I began to eat more heartily, and could take exercise without feeling fatigued. After a few more bottles of Dr. Williams' pink pills I lost all mdigestion and bilious troubles, and my tarms in three proportion and in blood got splendidly rich and pure.
